

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

Llanfynydd is a beautiful rural village located just off the beaten track, yet not too far from local amenities. Its location makes it the perfect place to stay for a quiet retreat or a base from which to seek adventure along the many walking, cycling and riding routes; including Offa's Dyke, Hope Mountain, Moel Famau and Llandegla.

Just a short drive away is the stunning scenery of the Clwydian Range and reaching out to the Snowdonia National Park.

The local area is steeped in history with many places of interest from the Roman cities of Chester (14 miles) and Shrewsbury (36 miles), to majestic castles, National Trust houses and more.

TY GWYLIAU

Ty Gwyliau's simply furnished, no frills accommodation provides 18 single beds across 10 bedrooms: four single rooms, four twin rooms and two triple rooms - all with their own wash basin.

In the centre of the bungalow sits a comfortable lounge and dining area. A small kitchen provides a two-ring cooking plate and microwave for preparing light meals, a toaster, kettle and a small fridge. Larger dining facilities including a fully fitted kitchen are available on site by request. If a hearty meal is what you are after, local eateries deliver or the village pub is a short walk/drive away.

The lounge opens out on to a large patio area with a brick BBQ, all set within a landscaped garden that looks across paddocks to the stunning views of Hope Mountain.

There are four bathrooms: two with a wet room shower; and two fitted with a bath, accessible Closomat toilet, adjustable height sink and ceiling hoist. Two twin bedrooms are also fitted with a ceiling hoist.

FACILITIES

- Ample on site parking
- Free WiFi
- TV
- Private garden with patio and BBQ
- Stabling (by arrangement and priced separately)

CUSTOMISE YOUR STAY
